ADDED CONFIDENCE WITH GUARANTEED AUTO PROTECTION

You might assume that your physical damage auto insurance is sufficient to cover any losses related to your vehicle.

However, when a vehicle is declared a total loss, the primary auto insurance settlement is generally based on the market value of the vehicle, which may be substantially less than the balance still owed on your finance or lease contract for the vehicle.<sup>1</sup> This difference is called the deficiency balance, which the vehicle owner is generally responsible for.

GUARANTEED AUTO PROTECTION (GAP) may waive or pay the deficiency balance (minus certain fees and charges) between the amount still due on your finance or lease contract and your auto insurance settlement.<sup>2</sup> In most states, GAP will cover your auto insurance deductible.<sup>3</sup>

Ask your dealer about GAP now because it’s only available from your dealer at the time you purchase or lease an eligible new or pre-owned vehicle. And, for your convenience, the cost of GAP can be added to your finance or lease contract and included as a portion of your monthly payment (subject to credit approval).<sup>4</sup> GAP is available in most states.
